Today & Tomorrow
—WILL BE—

F. M. ATWOOD'S
C. O. D.
Outfitting Emporium!

The OPENING to our GRAND OPENING or EXHIBITION DAYS of certain lowness for EVERY and EACH of ALL SAME. A glance at the programme herewith will convince you that this house has a big claim to your particular attention during these festivities. Frank Kirkland, our esteemed Chief of Police, has kindly detailed officers to assist in handling the crowds, and most lavish preparations have been made for your entertainment.
Read the programme—viz.:

FLORAL DISPLAY.

Several well-known florists have been engaged to furnish us a beautiful and beautiful supply of Roses, Lilies, Violets, Hyacinths, Oriental Plants, &c., to delight your eyes and regale your senses.

MUSIC

Will begin at 10 o'clock, sharp. Prof. Frank, the well-known and popular leader, will inaugurate the musical programme on this head with—

[illegible] and tomorrow other attractions, both vocal and instrumental, will be rendered by choice talent up to 9:15 o.m., at intervals of every 15 minutes. Come and participate in our festivities.

We have postponed this celebration that you might enjoy it with us when your interest in the Atwood Clothiers deserved should be heightened by evident appreciation of their unselfish aim. We're always ready for you long before your words appear, but rather you surely ought to be ready for these good things—viz.:

Spring Overcoats from $10 to $30.
Dress and Business Suits from $10 to $35.
Children's Knee-Pant Suits from $5.37 to $15.
Boys' 14 to 19 year Suits, $5.00 to $15.
HATS and FURNISHINGS in bewildering abundance at tempting Low Prices.
